ANNOUNCEMENTS DAVIS THEATRE.

Crowdell housen at all performances on Monday and Tuesday enjoyed one of the best vaudeville and feature picture programmes seen at the Davis. The cool atmosphere inside from the big fan downstairs made it very comfortable for the patrons without having any noise or draft blowing any noise or draft blowing any noise. draft blowing on one's head. The cooling system has been thoroughly overhauler this animer and a continuous influx of fresh air is poured into the theater are this summer and a continuous influx of freah air is poured into the theater and one can enjoy the show and keep cool at the same time. Every act is a big timer. The feature picture is worth the price of admission alone. Heading the vaudeville is the Exposition Jubileo Four, the best colored comedy quariette in vaudeville. The next act is Reed and Clifton in Steps a la Carte. Reed is a comedian with snap and Miss Clifton the ingenue with style. The next act is Forter and Peggy in That 2 Bit K-9. It's a dog's life that Peggy leads, but that is just the kind of a life one would expect Peggy to lead for Peggy happens to be a dog. The other act is Carney & Rose, who offer a delightful comedy, singing, talking and dancing offering entitled Lost a Husband. The feature picture is Norma Talmadge in The Woman Gives, a six part special production. All the world loves a lover, and by that teken Miss Norms Talmadge will increase the number of her many admirers by her work in The Woman Gives. Miss Talmadge as Inga Sonderson and Edmund Low eas Robert Milton depict the parts of two of the most entertaining and pleasing lovers who have ever appeared on the acreen. Paramount Screen Magazine completes the show.

BREED THEATRE.

Today and Thursday William Fox will resent his delightful star, Miss Shirley lason, in a new comedy, Molly and I. ased on Frank R. Adams' story, Molly and I and the Silver Ring, at the Breed theatre. The pretty little actress is said to have a rule that is admirably suited to her great talents and attractive perwith a heap of wholesome fun and just enough of pathos to make it doubly enenough of pathos to make it doubly en-tertaining. An excellent supporting cast, hended by the always clever Albert Ros-coe, supports the star. There are many beautiful scapes in the picture, some of them being laid in an Italian garden. Eduse Lyons and Lee Moran will also be seen in their premier attraction Every thing But the Truth. This picture consists of five chuckling reels of a just married mix-up. A Bray Pictograph will complete this bill.
